FOR RELEASE ON RECEIPT

The following students at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology were elected to hold office for the spring term in M.I.T.'s chapter of Sigma Gamma Tau, national honorary aeronautical engineering society:

President: Warren H. Weatherill, '54, of Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Vice President: John S. Clauss, Jr., '54, of Turlock, California.

Secretary: Antony W. Merz, '55, of Chatham, New Jersey.

Treasurer: Eddie J. Schwarz, '54, of Little Rock, Arkansas.

A recent merger of two formerly independent aeronautical societies, Sigma Gamma Tau strives not only to recognize scholastic achievement but also to encourage the worthwhile projects undertaken by its members. Faculty advisory for the Institute chapter of forty-three active members is Dr. Holt Ashley, assistant professor of aeronautical engineering.
