

From the News Service
Mass. Institute of Technology
Cambridge 39, Massachusetts

For Release in MORNING Papers of FRIDAY, April 15, 1955

Twenty-three promotions to senior posts on the Faculty of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology which will become effective on July 1, were announced today by the Institute.

Members of the Faculty appointed to the rank of full professor are:

James W. Daily of Arlington, Department of Civil Engineering

Henry J. Zimmermann of Swampscott, Department of Electrical Engineering

Harold W. Fairbairn of Watertown, Department of Geology

Alex Bavelas (now on leave at the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences at Stanford University), School of Industrial Management

Joseph Kaye of Brookline, Department of Mechanical Engineering

Carl W. Wagner of Cambridge, Department of Metallurgy

Herman Feshbach of Cambridge, Department of Physics

The following have been promoted to the rank of associate professor:

Robert L. Halfman of Lexington, Department of Aeronautical Engineering

Yao-Tzu Li of Watertown, Department of Aeronautical Engineering

(more)

promotions senior posts

Richard Filipowski of Lexington, Department of Architecture
Thomas H. Pigford of Lexington, Department of Chemical Engineering
Kevin Lynch of Watertown, Department of City Planning
John M. Biggs of Lexington, Department of Civil Engineering
Richard B. Adler of Concord, Department of Electrical Engineering
George P. Shultz of South Acton, Department of Economics
Samuel A. Goldblith of Melrose, Department of Food Technology
John T. R. Nickerson of Somerville, Department of Food Technology
Myron J. Gordon of Wilmington, School of Industrial Management
Kenkichi Iwasawa of Cambridge, Department of Mathematics
Stanley Backer of Cambridge, Department of Mechanical Engineering
Frank A. McClintock of Concord, Department of Mechanical Engineering
Maurice E. Shank of South Lincoln, Department of Mechanical Engineering
Felix M.H. Villars of Watertown, Department of Physics