

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

May 2, 1957

Military
Day
JRK

TO: Students and Staff of the Institute

At the request of the Departments of Military Science, Naval Science, and Air Science, I am declaring Tuesday, May 7, Military Day at the Institute. On this day a military parade and review will be held on Briggs Field starting at 4:00 p.m. ROTC awards and honors will also be conferred at this time.

All classes for freshmen and sophomores will be terminated at 3:55 p.m. on May 7 and members of the teaching staff are requested to excuse all juniors and seniors in the ROTC from classes held after 3:55 p.m. on this date.

Students and members of the staff are cordially invited to attend these ROTC exercises.

Yours cordially,

J. R. Killian, Jr.
President
