FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Seniors at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology will celebrate the end of final exams and theses with a round of traditional graduation festivities during Senior Week, June 2-7.

Senior Week immediately precedes the baccalaureate service and military commissioning exercises, June 8, and Commencement, June 9.

A "Stag Night" Senior Banquet, Friday, June 2, in Walker Memorial, with folk singer Oscar Brand and a faculty jazz band entertaining, will open the events of Senior Week.

Dr. Julius A. Stratton, President of M.I.T., will be guest of honor at the Banquet. William C. Greene, Professor of English, will act as master of ceremonies.

Senior Night at the Boston Pops is scheduled for Saturday, June 3. A beach party at George's Island will be held Monday, June 5, with the "Kingfisher," an excursion boat, leaving India Wharf at noon and 2 p.m. Following an afternoon on the beach, seniors will return to Boston on a moonlight cruise with dancing on board the boat.

The Senior Prom, the climax of Senior Week, will be held at Sidney Hill Country Club in Newton, Tuesday, June 6, at 9 p.m.
