

From the Office of Public Relations
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
Cambridge, Massachusetts 02139
Tel: UN4-6900, Ext. 2707

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The M.I.T. Gilbert and Sullivan Society will present "Patience" by Gilbert and Sullivan on the evenings of May 6, 7, and 8 in the Hayden Library Court at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The performances will begin at 8:30 p.m.

The comic opera will be staged under the direction of Steven N. Gilborn, with the assistance of Felix Viscuglia and Charles Fidler of the M.I.T. music staff. Set designer is Eric Levinson and lighting designer is Thomas Brosterman.

Tickets are $2.00 and may be obtained by calling UN4-6900, ext. 2910, or by writing to the M.I.T. Gilbert and Sullivan Society, Box 2353, 420 Memorial Drive, Cambridge, Mass. 02139. All seats are unreserved.

-30-

April 26, 1965

