Note to Editor: Students are listed alphabetically by country.

Students from 48 foreign countries received degrees today (June 11) from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Many families and relatives of approximately 200 foreign degree recipients came to the United States to witness the awarding of degrees at the commencement exercises of the scientific and technological Institute in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

The foreign students were among approximately 1260 students receiving graduate and undergraduate degrees. Dr. Julius A. Stratton, President of M.I.T., gave the commencement address and personally presented the diplomas to each degree recipient. Dr. James R. Killian, Jr., Chairman of the M.I.T. Corporation, presided over the ceremonies.

Foreign degree recipients are:

Austria

Emmerich Ladislaus Takacs, from Vienna, S.M. in industrial management. Sloan Fellow.

Belgium

Jean Henri Rene Ghislain Doyen, from Court St. Etienne, S.M. in civil engineering
Pierre Paul Gaudissart, from Brussels, S.M. in industrial management. Sloan Fellow.

Cyprus

Theodoulos Zenonos Kattamis, Sc.D. in metallurgy.
Pericles Constantine Mangiis, from Nicosia, degree of mechanical engineer

Foreign Degree Recipients--4

Norway

Jonny Andersen, from Oslo, Sc.D. in electrical engineering
Kaare Hoeg, from Drammen, Sc.D. in civil engineering
Hans Petter Jennssen, from Oslo, S.B. in electrical engineering
Emil Stang Lund, from Tonsberg, S.B. and S.M. in naval architecture and marine engineering
Jens Petter Tjoenneland, from Tonsberg, S.B. in naval architecture and marine engineering

Portugal

Joao Henrique Fernandes Marinho, from Porto, S.M. in naval architecture and marine engineering

Republic of Cameroun

Robert Elangwe Efimba, from Dienyi Village, S.M. in civil engineering

Republic of Congo

Jean Henri Rene Ghislain Doyen, from Bukavu, S.M. in civil engineering

Spain

Antoni Subira Claus, from Mataro, S.M. in industrial management
Jose Manuel Roesset Vinuesa, from Madrid, Sc.D. in civil engineering

Sweden

Ulf Hjalmar Lindborg, from Stockholm, Sc.D. in metallurgy

Switzerland

Rudolf Kurt Schmid, from Zurich, S.M. in industrial management
Fritz Theodor Wegmann, from Kusnacht-Zurich, S.M. in industrial management
John Patrick Wolf, from Bern, S.M. in civil engineering
